LIFE INSURANCE POLICY ("POLICY")

GENERAL TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR THE POLICY

IMPORTANT, PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

1. Your use of the insurance benefits is always subject to the terms and conditions of this policy, statutory notices, amendments, endorsements and addendums issued by us in terms of the policy; and must be read together with, and shall form a part of, this policy.
2. The policy is issued to you at your own request and without us providing you with any advice, we only provide factual information. Please read it carefully and ensure that it is appropriate to your needs. If not, please contact us. Also see CANCELLATION OF YOUR INSURANCE BENEFITS below.
3. If this policy, or any part of this policy is replacing an existing policy you have, make sure that you have carefully compared the insurance premiums, insurance benefits and terms and conditions.

ACCURACY OF INFORMATION

It is very important that you give The Unlimited and the Insurer honest and accurate information at all times. If you give The Unlimited and/or the Insurer false or incorrect information, your policy may be invalid or you may not be covered. The information you have given us is considered material to our assessment of the risk, so it must be accurately and properly disclosed. The accuracy and completeness of all answers, statements or other information provided by you or on your behalf is your responsibility.

If any claim or part thereof under this policy is in any way fraudulent, or if any fraudulent means or devices are used by you or anyone acting on your behalf, providing information regarding the claim for you, to obtain any insurance benefit under this policy (whether successfully, or not), or if any event is caused by or arises out of your intentional conduct, or any person acting on your behalf with your connivance; and/or any fraudulent information and/or documentation, whether created by you or any other party is provided by you or anyone acting on your behalf or with your connivance to us in substantiation or support of any claim under this policy and whether or not the claim itself is fraudulent; and/or if the quantum, in whole or part, of any claim is exaggerated by any degree whatsoever by you or anyone acting on your behalf or with your connivance, for any reason whatsoever and whether or not the claim itself is fraudulent; then any and all insurance benefits afforded in terms of this policy in respect of such claim will be forfeited and we will have no liability whatsoever to you in respect of such claim in its totality.

If the Insurer or The Unlimited fail to enforce any provision strictly or at all, this does not mean that we waive any of our rights thereto, nor does it mean that we may not enforce it thereafter.

GENERAL DEFINITIONS (what these words mean when used in this policy)

Subject to all the terms and conditions of the policy:

1. accident means an external, violent, unexpected and visible event, but which occurs at a time and place that can be identified. For example, a motor vehicle accident, an assault or burns.
2. additional dependant means any person, whose name and date of birth you have given to us and who are totally financially dependent on you. If you have chosen to cover an additional dependant, this means that from the date you add an additional dependant to this policy and throughout the lifetime of this policy, you (the policyholder) are totally responsible for the livelihood and support of your additional dependant and pay for their food, medicine, shelter and clothing. They must also be a member of your family through blood or by a recognised legal relationship.

IMPORTANT: the number of additional dependants that you can add is stated in THE INSURANCE BENEFITS section of this policy, at an additional cost to you, where applicable. Failure to provide The Unlimited with your additional dependant/s' details can result in the rejection of a claim, or the Insurer voiding the policy or parts thereof.

3. child/ren means your biological children, stepchildren, adopted children and children who are related to you by blood or a legally recognised relationship. The child/ren must be under the age of 21 and totally financially dependent on you. If you have chosen to cover your child/ren, this means that from the date you add a child to this policy and throughout the lifetime of this policy, you (the policyholder) are totally responsible for the livelihood of your child/ren and pay for their food, medicine, shelter and clothing.
IMPORTANT: You may add your child/ren to this policy from the day they are born alive (and up to the age of 21).
The number of children that you can add is stated in THE INSURANCE BENEFITS section of this policy, at an additional cost to you, where applicable. You must provide The Unlimited with the name, surname and dates of birth of your child/ren and your child/ren must be on record to be covered under this policy. Failure to provide The Unlimited with your child/ren's details can result in the rejection of a claim, or the Insurer voiding the policy or parts thereof.
4. due date means the date of your premium deduction every month (your salary pay date).
5. grace period means the period of 15 (fifteen) days following a failed premium collection (calculated from the premium due date) within which you can make a payment to us. During the grace period, all insurance benefits will remain in force. In the event of a claim occurring during the grace period, if the claim is approved, you authorise us to deduct all outstanding premiums from the claim settlement amount.
6. insured event means an accident which results in an insured person's admission/s to hospital because of an accidental injury, or your death (accidental or natural) from any cause not excluded under this policy.
7. insured person means you, your spouse and/or any child or other additional dependant who is covered under this policy. They must be South African citizens or, if they aren't, they must have residential rights in South Africa.
8. Insurer means Centriq Life Insurance Company Limited (Reg. No. 1943/016409/06), a licensed life insurer and an authorised financial services provider (FSP Number 7370) (the Insurer), the company which provides you with your insurance benefits and which receives the premium every month.
9. premium means the amount payable to the Insurer every month for the insurance cover (the insurance benefits) under this policy. The premium is disclosed separately in the insurance benefits section of this policy.
10. premium deduction means the collection of your premium on the due date every month. The collection method will be via Persal (the National and Provincial Government's personnel salary system).
11. spouse/partner means a named person who you are married to by civil law, tribal custom or in terms of any religion. This includes your life partner. If you have chosen to cover your spouse, the details of your spouse must be on record, he/she must live with you in South Africa and you must be interdependent on each other. At the time of a claim, it is your responsibility to prove that you and your spouse are interdependent and that you live together. When we use the word "partner", we refer to your spouse (as described above) or your life partner, being the person named on your policy.
12. start date means the date of your first successful premium deduction and is the date on which all your insurance benefits are available (subject to waiting periods).
13. waiting period means the period specified in this policy/THE INSURANCE BENEFITS section during which we need to successfully collect a specified minimum number of premiums from you before you are entitled to claim under this policy. Please note, the specified minimum number of premium deductions required to meet the waiting periods start from when a person is added to the policy and cover for the applicable insured person will also only begin once the Insurer has received the required minimum number of premiums for that person.
14. we/us/our means The Unlimited Group (Pty) Limited, acting on our own behalf or on behalf of the Insurer. We provide the intermediary services and binder functions on behalf of the Insurer in respect of the insurance benefits you have chosen. The Unlimited Group (Pty) Limited is an authorised Financial Services Provider (FSP No. 21473).

15. you/your means the policyholder and includes additional lives insured/dependants, where applicable.

HOW WILL WE COMMUNICATE WITH YOU?

1. We will communicate with you via email, SMS or WhatsApp, using the cell phone number and/or email address you provided The Unlimited when you took out this policy. This will be the agreed method of giving you any notice required by the policy or by law.
2. We will always communicate with you using your last known details (including the details of your dependants and beneficiary, where relevant) to fulfil your policy cover and to process any claims you may have. If any of your contact details change, please tell The Unlimited immediately.

FOR COMPLAINTS AND COMPLIANCE

1. It is important that you are happy with your policy. If you are unhappy for any reason, please call us on 0861 990 000 and give us a chance to see if we can set things right.
2. If you are still not happy, then refer to 'HOW TO SUBMIT A COMPLAINT' in the STATUTORY NOTICE OF DISCLOSURES AND OTHER LEGAL REQUIREMENTS section below.

PAYMENT AND NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUMS

It is your responsibility to pay your premium every month or you will not be covered.

1. Payment of premiums:

1.1. If you are a Government employee and have given us your Persal number:

- 1.1.1. you have authorised your employer to deduct the premium from your salary via Persal (National and Provincial Government's personnel salary system);
- 1.1.2. you agree that, should any changes in terms of this policy resulting in either the cancellation of the policy or an increase in premium be required, such changes need to be communicated to Persal first and the change may only be effective up to 60 days later. This means that you may have another premium deduction before the change is effective. For example: if an instruction to cancel this policy is received by Persal on the 25th of June, the cancellation may only be effective up to 60 days later during the following month, or the month after in August (and the premium will still be deducted from your salary in July).

- 1.2. The premium is due in advance and this policy will not be binding on us or the Insurer until your first successful premium deduction.
- 1.3. This policy is month-to-month. It will renew on the same terms each time your premium deduction is successful.

2. Unpaid premiums:

- 2.1. If the Insurer does not receive the premium by the agreed due date every month, you will have NO cover. The arrear (missed) premiums will not be deducted from your salary.
- 2.2. You have a grace period of 15 (fifteen) days, calculated from the due date within which to make a manual payment to us. During the grace period, all insurance benefits will remain in force. However, in the event of a valid claim occurring during this period, the outstanding premium can be deducted from the claim settlement amount. If we do not receive payment within the 15 days, you will not have cover. Example: premium due date is the 1st of May. If you miss a premium deduction, you will only have until the 16th of May to make a manual payment to us. If you don't, you will not have cover.

3. Debit order collections of premiums:

- 3.1. If the Government is unable to deduct the premium in favour of the Insurer from your salary via Persal, you have authorised us to deduct the premium from any of your bank accounts which you have given us. Your debit order will be presented to your bank on the same day as the due date unless you reject the request from your bank to authenticate your debit order mandate. If you suspend your DebiCheck authentication this will result in no cover under the insurance benefits.

- 3.2. In the event of your debit order being unsuccessful, we use a tracking system that allows us to process your debit on another date if need be to improve the likelihood of a successful debit order collection. This allows you to keep your policy active, but it remains your obligation to see that all premiums are paid manually when any collection of premiums fail.
- 3.3. If your premium is not received, or if you reject or suspend the DebiCheck authentication of your debit order mandate after the start date of this policy, this will not automatically result in the cancellation of your policy, and we will still be entitled to present the debit order for collection. You agree that we may, at our discretion, try and collect further monthly premiums from your account in accordance with the law, including rules prescribed by the Payments Association of South Africa. The grace period of 15 (fifteen) days will apply from the date of each missed premium.
- 3.4. If any further attempts to collect your premium fail, we reserve the right to cancel your policy immediately. We will notify you when this happens. If we successfully debit your bank account again, the date of that collection will be the new due date.
- 3.5. Any bank charges incurred because of failed collections will be for your own account.
- 3.6. IMPORTANT: your premium may be collected on a different date from the due date because of a public holiday or weekend, without notifying you. Any bank charges incurred as a result will be for your own account.
- 3.7. If you dispute your monthly debit order with the result that the debit order is reversed by your bank, and provided the debit order mandate is not cancelled, we may, subject to the terms of this policy, resubmit the debit order mandate for collection in the month following the dispute/s.

AMENDMENTS TO COVER OR PREMIUMS

1. We reserve the right to amend, add or change the premium, insurance benefit waiting period or terms and conditions of this policy, including your cover, by giving 31 days' written notice to you of our intention to do so.
2. Any variations and or changes, referred to above, including any premium rate adjustment will be binding on you and can be applied at any time to the existing terms and conditions after 31 days' notice of these changes have been sent to you, but please remember that it may still take up to 60 days from the date of communication to you to become effective.
3. If you choose to cancel your policy during the 31 day-notice period of amendment to the policy, you will not be entitled to a refund of premiums already paid.

WHEN DOES YOUR COVER START AND WHEN DOES IT AUTOMATICALLY END?

1. On receipt of your first premium by the Insurer, your policy will start (the start date). The start date of your policy will be the date of your first successful premium deduction. Please note: the instruction for your first premium deduction will need to be communicated to Persal first and your start date may only be effective up to 45 days later. This means that you may only have your first premium deduction in the following month/s. For example: if an instruction for your first premium deduction is received by Persal on the 25th of June, your first premium deduction may only happen up to 45 days later during the following month, or the month after in August (and the start date of your policy will only happen on the date of that first premium deduction).
2. You are entitled to your insurance benefits from the start date, subject to any waiting period that may apply.
3. If you are unsure when your cover starts, please contact us to confirm the start date of your policy.

4. You must be under the age of 65 to be covered under this policy. The policy will automatically end when you turn 70 or immediately on the death of the policyholder, unless your insurance benefits specify a different end date.
5. Any insurance benefits that apply to your dependants will also end should this policy end for any reason or when your dependants:
 - 5.1. in the case of children, turn 21; and
 - 5.2. in the case of adults, turn 70.

CANCELLATION OF YOUR POLICY

1. You can cancel your policy at any time. Call us on 0861 990 000. Please remember that your cancellation may take up to 60 days to take effect.
2. There is a cooling-off period of 31 days (calculated from when you received these terms and conditions OR from a reasonable date on which it can be deemed that you received them) within which you can cancel and receive a refund, BUT ONLY IF YOU HAVE NOT USED any of the insurance benefits. Cancellation of your policy will include cancellation of ALL your insurance benefits.
3. The Insurer can cancel or void the policy (or sections thereof) at any time if you do not fulfil your duties under this policy or if you misrepresent material facts, are dishonest or fraudulent in your actions, by the insurer notifying you immediately in writing of cancellation/voidance for fraudulent or dishonest actions or the non-payment of premiums.
4. The Insurer may cancel this policy in writing by giving you 31 days' notice (or such other period as may be mutually agreed and/or otherwise prescribed by this policy).
5. When this policy is cancelled (by you or by the Insurer) and no further premiums are received by you, all cover and benefits under it will end from the date it is cancelled.

TRANSFER OR CASH-IN

Your policy, or any rights in your policy, cannot be transferred to another person, unless specifically specified by us under the section named THE INSURANCE BENEFITS below. You cannot take out a loan against your policy. Your policy is month-to-month and does not pay out any profits, nor can it be cashed in for money.

REPLACEMENT INSURANCE

We do not provide financial advice to customers. If this policy, or any part of this policy is replacing an existing policy you have, make sure that you have carefully compared the insurance premiums, insurance benefits and terms and conditions.
